About Tamara

Tamara Jonah-Goka is an accomplished events planner and tastemaker showcasing some of the most innovative and sought-after designs. A true lion at heart, she leads and inspires a dynamic team in bringing imagination to life.

Based in Accra, Ghana, Tamara has an extensive portfolio spanning across the African continent. Her portfolio includes weddings, destination weddings, corporate launches, activations, political events and celebrity celebrations. She has had the honour to work with a diverse clientele, which includes state dignitaries, LVMH, Porsche, and Google. Recognition for Tamara's work features in BET Magazine, Forbes Africa, and Forbes Africa Woman.

Her reach doesn't end at events. Tamara established The Savannah, a lifestyle garden venue in 2016 as an alternative space to traditional Greater Accra venues. Her product offering, Blossom has become a go-to floral service in Accra. With new projects on the horizon in education and home goods, Tamara's business savviness continues to evolve.
